Local Project Runway contestant and HGTV's Flea Market Flip winner launches new shopping experience at the Delray Beach ReStore

Delray Beach, FL (May 8, 2025)—On May 3rd Amanda's Corner officially launched at Habitat for Humanity of Greater Palm Beach County's (HFHGPBC) Delray Beach ReStore. To bring this unique shopping experience to life, the nonprofit partnered with local designer Amanda Perna who is a two-time Project Runner contestant, HGTV Flea Market Flip winner, and ReStore enthusiast.

The festive launch reception featured brunch bites and a mimosa bar by Laura Ashley Catering, alongside a DIY floral arrangement station generously donated by Wellington Florist. Guests mingled to the sounds of '80s and '90s old-school hits spinning on the record player, creating a lively, nostalgic vibe. Following a ceremonial ribbon-cutting, attendees browsed the treasures of Amanda's Corner, which showcases a curated selection of thrifted finds from the ReStore, one-of-a-kind designs by Amanda Perna, and pieces from her Delray Beach boutique, House of Perna.

"Amanda's bold designs and commitment to uplifting the community make this partnership truly inspiring," said Todd Passehl, Chief Retail Officer. "We're thrilled to bring her unique vision to the Delray Beach ReStore, and we look forward to shoppers discovering creativity and purpose in Amanda's Corner, where every purchase supports Habitat's mission and helps build brighter futures."
